Recorded and produced in Nashville, TN, "So Full of Country" offers her fans a little bit of everything. There's something for everyone on this CD and plenty of variety for any fan of country music. "So Full of Country" is a follow up to Amanda's Debut EP "Gettin Out of This Town".

"I think this record is truly the most creative project I have ever done. I've put so much time and effort into getting the perfect selection of songs on the CD as well as making sure the places where I recorded were going to fit the sound I was looking for. This has been so much fun and if I had the chance to do it over again, I'd do it exactly the same way. I hope people have as much fun getting to know me on this album as I did actually making it".

This new album has a variety of different sounds that will certainly please the ears. The records' lineup includes songs such as "Don't Leave Me Tonight", a sentimental heartfelt song and "White Dress", a fun up-tempo song about the true reality of a girl trying to find love. Fans can also listen to the bluesy sound of "Shop Around" which is a foot tapping tune that will really get listeners moving. "Across the USA" encourages Americans to have pride in their country and while respecting our military and first responders. Pulling on her Buffalo roots, the CD's title track "So Full of Country" is enticing to any Rock & Roll fan as it has a rock instrumental along with country lyrics. The current fan favorite front runner is "Just Me & the Road", a culmination of Amanda's drive for her career and firsthand experience with life's complex choices. Amanda's songwriting talents are also showcased on this record. Of the 14 songs on the album, 12 were written by her.

"So Full of Country" is available now on iTunes and CD Baby along with Amanda's website (www.AmandaNagurney.com). It can also be found in select Border's and Barnes & Noble's bookstores around the Western New York region.
